

Spell Of Sunrise

Sat in silence
Everything's been said
Holding on but nothing's left

Lost the hour
Ours came and went
Bounded by the light

Won't you hold me
Like the night
Holds the secrets of my worried mind
Oh she's lonely
The moon reminds me
I'm wishing I could break the spell of sunrise
Won't you kiss me
And pretend it's not the last time

In the distance
A siren starts to sing
Songs of our old memories

Oh how pretty
Pain can seem to be
In the eyes of love

Won't you hold me
Like the night
Holds the secrets of my worried mind
Oh she's lonely
The moon reminds me
I'm wishing I could break the spell of sunrise
Won't you kiss me
And pretend it's not the last time

Won't you hold me
Like the night
Holds the secrets of my worried mind
Oh she's lonely
The moon reminds me
I'm wishing I could break the spell of sunrise
Won't you kiss me
And pretend it's not the last time
